JOB OFFER

OBJECT: Graduate Production Manager

COMPANY DETAILS: Salento Creazioni Moda Srls
SEDE LEGALE: Viale Italia 35, Matino 73046 (LE)

COMPANY DESCRIPTION: Salento Creazioni Moda is a company of passionate. A philosophy of ownership carries through everything we do — from the well-known fashion brand we work for to the new brands that start with us to launch their collection and grow. You'll find it in every team across our company. Every day we develop the ideas, the services and the products that make thousands of customers happier to wear their clothes. From providing finished product for well-known national and international fashion brands to developing products for new brands, Salento Creazioni Moda is a place of invention and progressive thinking. Salento Creazioni Moda is continually evolving and is a place where motivated employees thrive and employee ownership and accountability lead to meaningful results. It's as simple as this: Work Hard. Have Fun. Make History. With every order made and garment delivered, customer demand at Salento Creazioni Moda is growing. And to meet this demand, and keep our world-class service running smoothly, we're growing our Production team. Delivering thousands of products, our Production teams possess a wide range of skills and experience. These range from business analysis and inventory management, to team leadership, engineering and production. Our Centre is supported by Production Managers, Senior Production Managers and Team Managers. Between them they take responsibility for the receipt and stowing of inventory, picking, cutting, making, trimming and post production service, to ensure that our customers receive what they want, the quality they needs and when they want it. Whatever your background or current area of expertise, if you're motivated by results and driven enough to achieve them, Salento Creazioni Moda is a great place to be. We're all about flexibility: we expect you to adapt to changes quickly and we encourage you to try new things and take your career down different paths. Because it's only by coming up with new ideas and challenging the status quo that we can continue to be one of the most customer-centric company in the fashion industry in Salento.

PLANNED ACTIVITIES: About the Graduate role: Salento Creazioni Moda is looking for ambitious and enthusiastic graduates to join the fast paced world of Fashion as a Graduate Production Manager. This will be a permanent role from day one with structured onboarding and plenty of training and support. An Production Manager is a manager with a bias for action. You will manage day-to-day operations in one of the segments of production (cutting, making, trimming) and liaise with other departments to ensure a smooth flow of operations. Through your work, you will continuously improve the functionality and level of service that the Fulfilment centre provides to our customers. In this role you will lead and develop a team of associates to their full potential, ensuring your team meets performance objectives in order to fulfill and exceed our customers' expectations. You will learn to carry out a manager's responsibilities in accordance with Salento Creazioni Moda's policies and procedures; ensuring that standards of discipline are maintained and infringements are handled appropriately. Furthermore, you will be responsible for measuring, evaluating and improving the processes in the areas of Production, obtaining and reporting on key metrics data and driving production within your area. Responsibilities: You will be managing aspects of output in your area: people management, metrics, productivity targets, and process improvements. The extent of your duties will include: Maintain health and safety standards within your area and promote a positive health and safety culture on site. Lead, manage and mentor a large and diverse team of associates in a specified department within a fast-paced and high-volume environment. The result is a learning environment that's quite unlike any other. You'll have the chance to work alongside experienced leaders, giving you a unique insight into our business and the skills you need to excel within it.

CANDIDATE REQUIREMENTS: About you: We want to hire the world's brightest minds, and offer them an environment in which they can relentlessly improve the experience for our customers. You will be able demonstrate strong leadership ability and excellent communications skills across all levels within a diverse culture. You will be results driven with analytical capability, with the ability to innovate and simplify current process and practices. You should have strong decision making skills, that use sound reasoning and when required use consultation to achieve consensus. You will be willing to work to flexible schedules and commit the time required to get the job done. Preferred skills: web and mobile software development. Fluency in Italian required. Preferred Qualifications: Previous work experience – a summer job, internship or full- time role; if it's in an operations or customer-facing environment so much the better. The personal drive and enthusiasm that makes you stand out from the crowd!
